IN AND OUT

Bianca Beck, Anne Buckwalter, Bernadette Despujols, Heather Guertin, Sheree Hovsepian, Sacha Ingber, Melissa Joseph, Talia Levitt, Abigail Lucien, Anna Jung Seo

Organized in collaboration with Rachel Uffner Gallery

September 21 — November 2, 2024

Sidecar is pleased to present In and Out, a group exhibition featuring work by Bianca Beck, Anne Buckwalter, Bernadette Despujols, Heather Guertin, Sheree Hovsepian, Sacha Ingber, Melissa Joseph, Talia Levitt, Abigail Lucien, Anna Jung Seo. The exhibition is organized in collaboration with Rachel Uffner Gallery, New York, NY.

The artists in this show communicate via a medley of visual languages and narrative theses. Employing a vast range of storytelling techniques, they play with varying levels of opacity in how (and how much) is revealed. The key is in that range itself—from thick to thin, hazy to sharp, secretive to divulgent, symbolic to literal, an optical and narrative push and pull exists between the works. Situated in Sidecar, a new space in Los Angeles that features a diversity of ideas, positions, and authors, this tapestry of artists, with their intertwined stories, will invite compelling conversation.

Rachel Uffner Gallery launched in September 2008 in New York City as a gallery dedicated to supporting multi-generational artists working in a variety of mediums. Over the past 16 years, the gallery has established itself as a vital platform for introducing new artistic voices, championing female and nonbinary artists, and nurturing significant international careers.

Sidecar

Established in 2024, Sidecar is a new exhibition space located next to Night Gallery's North campus in Downtown Los Angeles. Over the next two years, Sidecar will exist as a dynamic curatorial project that will expand on Night Gallery's legacy as an ever-evolving art platform. Led by Night Gallery founder Davida Nemeroff, Sidecar provides opportunities for collaborative exhibitions with partner galleries, curators, and artists from near and far, serving as a nexus of exchange between the creative communities with which Night Gallery is engaged.
