5 Things to Do in New York's Art World Before April 20

By Nate Freeman | 04/16/15 3:02pm

SUNDAY, APRIL 19 Opening: "sorry, i've been trying to teach a peacock how to act" and "Pam Lins: model, model, model" at Rachel Uffner And at nearly the same spot as JTT but a day later, Rachel Uffner is opening two new shows as well. The first, a group exhibition entitled "sorry, i've been trying to teach a peacock how to act," features work by Joe Goode, Wade Guyton, and Rachel Harrison. Dig the retro NBC logo font in the flier—peacock, get it? And then the other show is a solo exhibition from Pam Lins, "model, model, model," and it will have something to do with old telephones. Rachel Uffner, 170 Suffolk Street, New York, 6-8 p.m.
